London

Spend a couple of nights in London to explore the English capital city. Visit the Tower of London, and see the famous sights on an open top bus tour.

Brighton

An eccentric seaside town that inspired Graham Greene's novels, Brighton is less than an hour from London by train and is a very cosmopolitan city with many bars and clubs. Don't miss a "flight" on the world's tallest moving observation tower, the BA i360, to enjoy breath-taking views over Brighton and the beautiful South Coast of England.

London Victoria to Brighton → 55 minutes

Salisbury

Known as "the city in the countryside", Salisbury is surrounded by a landscape so quintessentially English it's almost too good to be true. With timbered buildings, an Early English Gothic Cathedral home to the famous Magna Carta, a thriving market, a buzzing arts scene, museums and some of England's finest historic houses there are many things for you waiting to be explored. Nearby, you can visit Stonehenge, one of the wonders of the world and the best-known prehistoric stone circle in Europe.

London Waterloo to Salisbury → 1 hour 30 minutes

Canterbury

"Canterbury's past is as rich as it comes" says the latest Lonely Planet guide to Britain. This world-famous cathedral city was one of medieval Europe's great places of pilgrimages and knowledge. Today it has a distinctly cosmopolitan feel, as well as world-class heritage and history. Less than an hour from London, it's in a corner of England that's almost touching France.

London St Pancras to Canterbury → 1 hour

Bath

Founded on top of natural hot springs and home to one of the world's best-preserved Roman bathhouses, this sophisticated city is where grand Georgian architecture and buildings such as The Royal Crescent and the Assembly Rooms evoke the romance of Jane Austen's novels, where the author spent five years of her life.

London Paddington to Bath → 1 hour 25 minutes

Oxford

Home to the oldest university in the English-speaking world, The Grand Hall of Oxford's mighty Christ Church College, Bodleian Library and New College will be recognisable to Harry Potter film fans. Admire the famous 'Dreaming Spires' of medieval churches while enjoying strawberries and champagne as you take a leisurely punt down the river.

London Paddington or Marylebone to Oxford → 1 hours

Stratford-upon-Avon

A picturesque market town full of independent shops, characterful cafés and rowing boats drifting down the River Avon, famously the birthplace of William Shakespeare. Visit The Royal Shakespeare Company and five beautifully preserved Tudor homes and gardens, all directly linked with The Bard for a feeling of days gone by.

London Marylebone to Stratford-upon-Avon → 2 hours

Bristol

Explore the laid-back city of Bristol for a glimpse of its graceful architecture and offbeat culture. Famous as the birthplace of Banksy, take a walk to appreciate the city's street art, indulge in gastronomy of every flavour in trendy revamped warehouses and explore the SS Great Britain, the world's first ship made of iron.

London Paddington to Bristol → 1 hour 45 minutes

Liverpool

Nicknamed The Capital of Pop, Liverpool's rich music history can be explored at the Beatle Story, a museum dedicated to the Fab Four, or the British Music Experience, a brand new museum dedicated to British
